PROJECTS

Help! (Rails, React, Redux, AWS, CSS3, HTML5) - Live | GitHub

A single page application inspired by Yelp where users are able to rate and review restaurants.

- Utilizes PostgreSQL in conjunction with Active Record to immediately re-calculate averages of business qualities after a new review is added.
- Employs CSS Flexbox to provide an intuitive and user friendly experience.
- Leverages a specialized slice of state to redirect users to an intended page after a successful login.

Maze Spinner (JavaScript, Canvas) - Live | GitHub

A game where users race through a maze while it randomly rotates.

- Applies JQuery to track user key inputs for fluid movements.
- Incorporates Canvas' requestAnimationFrame for a smooth and attractive display.
- Features a series of threaded asynchronous functions for never-ending random gameplay.

NBA Stats By The Minute (D3, React, Redux, JQuery, HTML5, CSS3) - Live | GitHub

A data visualization of a players impact compared with his teammates.

- Includes an express server in the backend to circumvent CORS errors on API calls.
- Seamlessly integrates React and D3.
